'Roseneath' is a luxuriously designed and master built weatherboard residence completed in 2017 occupying a substantial corner block of approx. 1,448sqm less than 2.0km from the heart of Leura village. Embraced by sweeping level lawns and gardens featuring a desirable north to rear aspect, the home is exceptionally private and displays superior craftsmanship with sophisticated contemporary finishes yet radiates the romantic charm and elegance of a bygone era. The result is a home of timeless architectural beauty and effortless functionality that's both aesthetically pleasing and a joy to live in.

Interiors brimming with light and character display thoughtful attention to even the smallest detail, with open living spaces, generous accommodation and easy
